ANGLING NEWS.

When interviewed, Rev. Dr. Hurley, P.P., told our correspondent that the newly formed Shanganagh Anglers' Association, of which he is President, is to stock the Shanganagh River with trout and fry. They are also to open Dingle Lake (Ballycorus) to the public. He also said that when they expand they will amalgamate with the Dublin Anglers' Association and other Angling Clubs so as to give full benefits to members. Membership fee is 5/-d. per annum. Intending members should apply to Mr. C. Whelan, Ballybrack.

The tour is open to all and the fare (excluding lunch) is 17/6d. Deposits must be in before or on Sunday, 29th., and they may be handed in at the Club, Ballybrack.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Forty Hours Adoration opened on June 22nd with. Solemn High Mass followed by a procession of the Blessed Sacrament in which children, the choir and parishioners took part. The concluding ceremonies took place on Tuesday with Solemn High Mass.

ATTITUDE.

It isn't the job that counts - its you;
The way you do it, the reasons too;
It isn't the task that makes the song,
Its the heart you put in it all day long;
A Glory will come to each job you do,
When you know Who's watching and loving you,
The humbler the job the surer the crown,
And the singer of songs wins a smile not a frown.
